

Jude Miller Burke, Ph.D. Testimonials

"Jude recently presented a session at the Annual EAPA World Conference. I appreciated her ability to provide specific examples to better clarify her concepts as well as emphasize information particularly relevant to my profession. I would certainly support her for future presentations."

Tom Reynolds, Certified Employee Assistance Professional

"Jude's book is the story of women doing well by doing good work for their organizations and communities. Her book is based on a three-year research project of high achieving women (and men), which provides insights and advice on how to overcome obstacles to be successful. Jude's years of experience in management and as a leader add to the veracity of her book. A copy of this book should be on every businesswoman's desk!"

Dr. Edward Bergmark, Founder and Former CEO, Optum, United Health Group

"Dr. Jude Miller Burke's presentation was invaluable as a young female professional with a new business and baby. I felt like amongst the hundreds of people in the audience, she was speaking to me directly; validating my hard work and giving me direction to become a stronger leader. Her personal examples of the inevitable hardships along the way, coupled with the power of perseverance left me inspired knowing I can achieve financial success while having life/work balance."

Dr. Andrea Hutchinson, Founder and Owner of CARE Counseling in Minneapolis

"As a data-driven businesswoman, I appreciated Dr. Miller Burke's solid, scientific research as the basis of her insights to the Millionaire Mystique. The stories in her book highlight that many wealthy working women are simply women who translated childhood adversity into the resiliency, focus, and drive that fueled their professional and personal success. This book should encourage all women to believe that yes...they can have it all."

Dr. Archelle Georgiou, President Georgiou Consulting and KSTP-ABC Medical Consultant

"Wow! Wish I had this treasure years ago. Women destined for greatness CAN have it all! Through her exhaustive studies, Dr. Jude Miller Burke breaks the code and delivers a roadmap to riches, with family bliss to boot!"

Teri Gault, Founder & CEO of The Grocery Game

"Jude was on target, and her presentation was spot on. It helped me identify my own issues."

"A very powerful presentation! Loved the speaker today."

"Mindfulness is a learned behavior, but my own life's crisis had hardwired me to not fully have the confidence to focus on my own personal growth. This workshop gave me clarity and the COURAGE to move forward with grace and tools to learn, grow and live wisely."
